

Bro John Baxter

I was brought up in Edinburgh in a warm Christian environment. I gave my life to the Lord when I was 18. I am married to Pam and we have attended Blakelaw Community Church since 2014.

There is a great need today for people to know the Lord Jesus and, as an elder of the church, I desire that our fellowship will reach out with the 'good news'.