

Rev Jonathan Aiah Komba-Kpakoi

I am married with four children and have strong evangelical core values. I became a 'born again' Christian in 1992 and did some evangelical work when teaching at schools in Sierra Leone, West Africa. I am also a trained classroom teacher and a qualified Health & Social care worker.

Currently I am one of the leadership team at Blakelaw Community Church. My main focus is preaching the good news of Jesus Christ and giving hope to others to enable them to transform their lives through Jesus Christ. I strive to work with all age groups.
